"SATISFACTION OR YOUR MONEY BACK"

Costly thy habit as thy purse can buy,
Yet not expressed in fancy; rich not gaudy;
For the apparel oft proclaims the man.

Think Again

If you are in the habit of having merchandise sent on approval THINK AGAIN before deciding to cause the delivery wagon to make possibly two trips to your home.

It's so easy when shopping to say, "Oh, well, just send it out on approval and I'll try it on at home." This habit has been encouraged by the willingness of the merchant to accommodate his customer.

But now—the Government of the United States asks you to co-operate with the stores in helping to eliminate the waste of time involved in returning goods and delivering small packages which could easily be carried.

Why not express your patriotism and co-operate in this suggestion offered by the United States Government.

SEGREGATION ORDINANCE

Louisville System Knocked Out By U. S. Supreme Court—Many Southern Cities Affected.

Washington, Nov. 7.—Compulsory separation of the negro and white races in residential districts is a violation of the constitution, the supreme court held today in an unanimous opinion, declaring invalid the Louisville, Ky., segregation ordinance. The measure, which prohibited persons of either race moving into blocks into which a majority of the residents were of the opposite color, is similar to ordinances now in effect in St. Louis, Richmond and many other Southern cities. Such laws, the court decided, would not prevent the amalgamation of the races as was claimed by the Louisville authorities, or prevent race conflicts.

"Desirable as this is and important as is the preservation of the public peace," said the opinion, "this aim cannot be accomplished by laws or ordinances which deny rights created or protected by the federal constitution."

Laws providing for the separation of the races in public conveyances and in the public schools, where equal privileges are given, the court pointed ed out, have been upheld, but it asserts that such legislation must have its limitations and cannot be sustained where the exercise of authority exceeds the restraint of the constitution.

The court's action was a reversal of the lower court, which held the ordinance to be a reasonable exercise of the state police powers. The ordinance was enacted in 1914 and the case was argued twice in the supreme court.

Edison a Pampered Husband.

Mrs. Thomas A. Edison, wife of the inventor, never insists on his doing anything he does not want to do. This is what Mrs. Edison said to Nikola Greeley-Smith, who has written of the inventor's wife for the November People's Home Journal.

"You see, I like to think that he has everything just exactly as he wants it in the few hours that he is at home. Sometimes when my daughter and I have been motoring with him we have wanted to go one way, and Mr. Edison has suggested another route. My daughter would sometimes be a little irritated. But I would think all ways, 'Well whatever he shows us will be interesting, too, and we have so much more time than he has and can see what interests especially some other time.'"

Value of Castor Beans.

The castor bean grows rapidly and makes an ideal low windbreak to catch and stop surface winds. It will also withstand fierce and continuous winds in districts having the poorest and driest of soils. It is an excellent windbreak.

FOLLOWING THE FLAG.

Miss Pansy Jenkins, a graduate nurse of this city, who volunteered some time ago for Red Cross work, on Tuesday received orders to hold herself in readiness for active service and will leave in a few days for Camp Taylor, at Louisville. Miss Jenkins is a highly capable nurse and like the women generally is filled with a patriotic desire to do something for her country. She expects to go abroad whenever ordered to do so.

Lieut. Col. E. B. Bassett returned to Camp Shelby Tuesday afternoon, his furlough having expired. He expects to go to France in the near future with several other officers designated to go.

Guy Hodge, called "Red," when he played in the Kitty League, has passed the physical examination for the U. S. aviation section. He started last season with Jacksonville ball team. He is anxious to drop bombs on the German home plate ahead of the runners when the final game is played next season.

Backing Cloth for Wall Paper.

Garrott-McClendon.

Yesterday afternoon at Salem Baptist church, Mr. Morris C. Garrott and Miss Ellen McClendon were united in marriage, at 5 o'clock. Rev. E. L. Edens officiated and Mr. and Mrs. Norris Garrott were attendants. They went to the groom's home and on January 1 will move to the Dunlop farm in Montgomery county, Tenn. The groom is a son of Mr. Jeff J. Garrott, and is one of the leading young farmers of the county. His bride is the pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. McClendon, who formerly lived in this city.

Ten Thousand Stenographers Wanted By The Government.

Nashville, Tenn., November 6, 1917. —Hon. John A. McIlhenny, President of the Civil-Service Commission, Washington, D. C., recently wrote to Draughon's College, Nashville, urging that College to help the United States Government secure more stenographers, both men and women, the Government now being in need of ten thousand stenographers and many bookkeepers at salaries ranging from one thousand dollars to twelve hundred dollars a year to begin on.

In his letter Mr. McIlhenny urges young men and women who are not trained for Government office positions to begin now to take the necessary training, as the prospect is that the demand will continue indefinitely. Draughon's Nashville College is now receiving from business men more than one hundred calls a month for bookkeepers and stenographers.

To show its patriotism, Draughon's Nashville College is offering special terms to all who desire to prepare, at college or by mail, for these good positions.—Advertisement.

Speaking From Experience.

An actress paints for the center of the house. Judging from the thickness with which some women not of the stage lay on the rouge, they're painting for the first man that comes within a mile of 'em.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

A Philippine Medicine Tree.

Between the provincial building and the Filipino schoolhouse, part of which is used as a girl's dormitory, stands the sacred tree of the Ifugao with a span of its branches of 81 feet. Nor is it a tree at all in the true sense, for it is a gigantic example of the baobab, which begins as a parasite vine, kills the tree on which it rises, and then hides it in its twining trunk. The Ifugao think that when that huge tree dies they too will perish, but there is an industry, stolidity and a stamina in that of secure race that should remove from their hearts all fear of extinction.
